Vocational View - Like the father in the Gospel, God welcomes us home in spite of our sinfulness, and calls us to a life of holiness. Where are you at home? Are you being called to life as a priest or religious? (Luke 15:1-3, 11-32)

- Apr. 1st - Selfish ambition closes our hearts to Jesus and to one another.
- Apr. 2nd - God always gives His best to those who leave the choice with Him.
- Apr. 3rd - The only way to help yourself is to help others.
- Apr. 4th - The curse of the cross was changed by Christ into a blessing for us.
- Apr. 5th - When we depend on man, We get what man can do, When we depend on prayer, We get what God can do.

It Pays to Advertise ~ Our parishes benefit significantly from the ads placed in this bulletin. The advertising dollars pay for our bulletin service. Many thanks to those who have continued to renew, and the new advertisers that joined us this past year. When patronizing those businesses that advertise with us, please let them know you saw their ad on our bulletin.
This week's feature ad is:

We thank you for the generosity given throughout the year to help those less fortunate. The ongoing prayers, monetary donations, and keeping our pantry well-stocked each month has truly been a blessing! Your contributions have made a difference in the lives of so many people.

The conference office will continue to help those in need on Tuesday, Wednesday, or Thursday from 9-11 a.m., or by special appointment if needed.

Pantry or monetary donations can be accepted anytime during regular store hours, Monday-Friday from 9 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. Monetary donations may be mailed to St. Mary/St. Barbara Conference of SVDP located at 421 Main Street in Norway.

Please welcome to the Catholic family through the Sacrament of Baptism Beau, Finley and Pemene Kiser, children of James and Katy Kiser. May you and your family grow in the faith. Congratulations!

God does not expect all of us to be rocket scientists or brain surgeons. As St. Theresa of Calcutta (Mother Theresa) said, all that is expected of us is to be faithful, leaving the results to God. The bottom line is, all you need to do is to try. Imagine the blessings that God would bestow on us if we just tried our best to help save lives.

Thursday, April 10, 2025

This liturgy is scheduled at 3:30pm ET, at St. Peter Cathedral in Marquette

There will be sign up sheets in the vestibules of both parishes for volunteers to have their feet washed at the Holy Thursday Mass, April 17, 7:00pm at Saint Barbara Parish.

What is the significance of Foot Washing on Holy Thursday? Foot washing is an ancient practice of hospitality. In Israel in Jesus' day, with its deserts and dusty roads, washing of feet was an act of honor on the part of the host. However, the host himself would not do the washing. That was the role of the servant. The Apostles would have been accustomed to this tradition. At the Last Supper, Jesus takes on the role of the servant, washing the feet of his followers and friends. He models the humble, loving service to which the Apostles would soon be called.

When the priest washes the feet of his parishioners, he is modeling the service of Christ. While foot washing is no longer a common practice in our society, we too are invited to imitate Christ's sacrificial service to others.

HOLY WEEK / EASTER TRIDUUM

Sunday, April 13th: Passion Sunday (Palm Sunday), Masses Saturday, 4:00 p.m. at Saint Mary Parish and 6:00 p.m. at Saint Barbara Parish. On Sunday, Masses are 8:00 a.m. at Saint Barbara Parish and 10:00 a.m. at Saint Mary Parish. Parishioners are asked to gather in the church for these Masses. The liturgy of Passion Sunday will begin with the Gospel and blessing of palms in the church entryway. A procession will then proceed into the church.

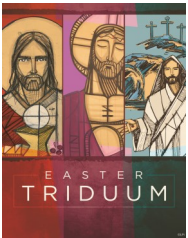

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord, the king of Israel. Hosanna!

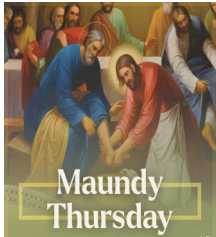

Tuesday, April 15th: Mass will be celebrated at 5:00 p.m. at Saint Mary Parish.

Wednesday, April 16th: Mass will be celebrated at 8:00 a.m. at Saint Mary Parish, followed by Stations of the Cross.

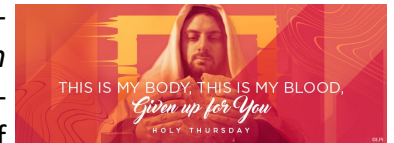

The Triduum, the great three days, is the climax of the Liturgical year and the central Christian mystery of the triumph of life over death. The 40 days of Lent have been leading us to the three days where Christians gather to celebrate the mystery of the passion, death and resurrection of Jesus. With prayer and dramatic ritual we move into Easter, coming forward to place our hand in the baptismal waters and renew our response to the Lord. Please join us for our liturgies on Holy Thursday, Good Friday and the Easter Vigil on April 17th, 18th and 19th.

Holy Thursday, April 17th: Mass at 7:00 p.m. at Saint Barbara Parish, On Holy Thursday the Church celebrates the institution of the Holy Eucharist and the priesthood. "This is my body, which will be given for you; do this in memory of me." (Luke 22:19B) Come celebrate the joy of ministry that is the fabric of service to others. In the washing of the feet we come to a profound humility rooted in the example of Christ. On this same Holy Thursday night, we celebrate the arrival of the Holy Oils to our community: the Oil of Chrism, the Oil of the Sick and the Oil of Catechumens. After Mass, all remaining hosts are taken to an altar of repose, where Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament occurs.

Good Friday, April 18th: Service at Noon at Saint Mary Parish and 3:00 p.m. at Saint Barbara Parish.

Celebrate the ultimate mystery of the triumph of the cross. Unite your suffering and those of the world with the wood of the Cross. Venerate the cross, our sign of victory beyond pain and death. There is no Liturgy of the Eucharist. The tabernacle is emptied and remains empty through Holy Saturday - just as Jesus departed through this earthly world in death - and we wait in hope for Easter Sunday! Good Friday is the birth of hope and peace.

Easter Vigil, Saturday, April 19th: Mass 8:00 p.m. at Saint Mary Parish. Celebrate darkness broken by light. Relive the new life given to us in the waters of Baptism and join in the proclamation of the Resurrection and the refreshment of the Eucharist.

Easter Sunday, April 20th: Mass at 8:00 a.m. at Saint Barbara, Vulcan 10:00 a.m. at Saint Mary, Norway
